

Never Be Lonely Again

Never be lonely, never be lonely again (3x)
Never be lonely

In the beginning was the truth
But then there's the truth behind the truth
And even more truth beyond that
So tell me, where are we at?
Still trying to get to stage one?

There are those that tell you, in this life you gotta lie
You didn't hear it from me
How can you and me connect if we're lying all the time?
And the lies are nothing compared to all the things we hide
In the beginning was the truth (3x)
Never be lonely, never be lonely again (3x)
Never be lonely

Knowledge is a living thing, it's not a dead book in a box someplace
And what keeps it going is the truth, like building up a flame
Showing your true face, bit by bit, without knowing what you'll find
In the beginning,
In the beginning was the truth (2x)

Never be, never be lonely, never be lonely again (3x)
